FOREWORD

THIS is the treasure chest of your high school days. May you in the future open its cover often, and delving into its hidden depths find priceless memories from which you may derive as much enjoyment as we have found in preparing it for you.

High school days—the best of one's life —and the record of those days you will find preserved in this chest. Value them, keep them safely, and prize them highly, for they are truly a treasure.

TO

ALL MY FELLOW STUDENTS WHO HAVE HELPED SO GENEROUSLY; TO THE FACULTY WHO HAVE GIVEN THEIR AID AND ENCOURAGEMENT; TO OUR ADVERTISERS WHO HAVE IN NO SMALL WAY MADE THIS PUBLICATION POSSIBLE, IN THE NAME OF THE PARKER STAFF, I EXPRESS MY SINCERE GRATITUDE.

EDITOR.

DEDICATION

We, the class of 1937, do affectionately dedicate this Parker to Miss Schalm and Mr. McCloy who have so unselfishly and willingly helped us along our journey.

Through their co-operation and good-fellowship they have been the means of removing many an obstacle from our pathway of learning and have made themselves beloved by all who have learned to know them.

MARY WARDLAW—Talks less, smiles more.

LILLIAN WENKUS—A girl she seems of cheerful yesterdays and confident tomorrows.

SENIORS

GEORGE WESTFALL—I never let studies interfere with my education.

LAURIE WILSON—Lindy has nothing on me.

MARGARET WILSON—In work of art, this girl was smart.

DELPHINE WININGER—Less said, more thought.

MILO WOLL—Never quiet, never still, life's too short to waste or kill.

MABEL YOUNG—Different—but nice.

THE CLASS WILL

We, the most distinguished and world-famous graduating class of this year 1937, although overworked and mentally strained, have succeeded in discharging all of our obligations and incompletes, cleaned out our lockers, and made earnest endeavors in patching up with the faculty little misunderstandings from years back, do mournfully bestow our most valued possessions upon the undergraduates who follow in our footsteps.

The class, as a whole, after much discussion and debate has consented to leave the school one-half of its intellect to be equally shared among the students. That ought to be enough to go around twice, and then some.

We also leave our cooperative spirit to the Juniors in hopes that they will make the very best of it.

Lily Armstrong, Dorothy Radtke, and Allen Ashley leave their quietness to the study hall, something teachers ought to appreciate.

Charles Balis wills his persuasive manners to Lillian Moberley.

Frieda Boyce and a few others claim they've already willed enough straight from the heart.

Estelle Roe and Catherine Morgan will their red hair to all girl "Henna-ers."

Marcia Bryan and Betty Jane Walters will their musical ability to those struggling young pianists.

Russell Burger wills his styles in dressing to Mahatma Ghandi.

Charles Colgrove and Bob Burger pass their "yen" for teasing to some backward freshman.

Helen Cook and Viola Vennard leave their athletic ability to future basketball teams.

Harold Corbin wills those two waves to boys in line at out-of-town beauty shops.

Vince Greeson leaves his high-pressure salesmanship to next year's annual sellers.

Mary Dalton and Dorothy Gragg will their shyness to Genevieve Lockhart.

Dorothy and Thelma Hendry will their ignorance of men to Barbara Russell.

Art Hulbert thinks he can spare a bit of romance, so leaves it to John Locklin.

Wilma Hill leaves her dresses to whoever can use them. Don't crowd, girls.

Neva Henderlight wills her honest manners to anyone whose conscience bothers him.

Betty Jones wills her smile to any long-faced Junior.

Louis Kahn leaves his craving for candy to next year's senior candy stand.

Doris Kellogg wills her dimples and talking eyes to future dramatic clubs.

Carl Kligman wills his scholastic average to anyone failing to graduate.

Lorna Lane wills her curly hair to the gals with the two-bit permanents.

Bertha Lindholm and Virginia McMurray will their blond hair to the "Blondex" users.

Walter Ogilvie and John Kaumeyer have done their willing from the heart.

Isabelle Lumsden and Pauline May will their golden voices to future Glee Clubs.

Bob Newberry wills his way with the women to Jack Bogues and Bob Adams. Keep it up, boys.

Bill Husband and Pat Larch will their positions in sports to the freshman boys.

Zig Niparko and Laurie Wilson will their success of membership in Hi-Y, oh, to just any new members.

Ernest Parsonson and Dick Martz will their stature to Reggie Sandy and Emil Rinderspacher.

Frances Oldenburg wills her broken heart to anyone that wants it.

Clarence Sova wills his freedom of speech to some backward freshman.

Tom Springer and Luther Stewart will their distinctive personality and winning ways to you Junior boys.

John Tansil wills his dazzling eyes to all young romantics.

Sam Gill wills his A's to his sister Olga. Think you can use the two?

Rupert Chynoweth wills his ability to take up something besides space to "Sass" Lilly.

Paul Kampe wills his voice to next year's announcer.

Katherine Pavkovich wills her sophisticated ways to Gretchen Baas.

Vivian Swan wills her laugh to the Junior girls that never crack a smile.

Milo Woll wills his sax to the school so someone else can suffer for a while.

Gisela Pusch wills her slenderness to any girl dieters.

Hermina Olmack wills her smallness to Irene Taylor.

John Reich wills his skill about school to his sister.

Edward Ringl wills his love for poetry to anyone in love.

Laura Rohelier, Lillian Irion, and Marie Tronge will their tap-dancing to future jamborees.

Evelyn Bechtel and Marie Ruebelmann will their good times to you fireside gals.

Mary Smith and Margie Bland leave their rag-chewing friendship to Ruth La Follette and Kathleen Smith.

George Westfall wills his sleepiness to anyone bored.

Howard Dinger wills his dancing spirit to school dances.

Margaret (Brda) Brierly leaves her famous walk to the tardy students.

James Walters leaves his troublesome ways to Stanley Lock.

George Bugor leaves his trials and tribulations to next year's class president.

Lillian Wenkus wills her beautiful tresses to Rita Moore.

John Stephenson leaves his line to Thomas Lax.

Alvira Hermance leaves her weight to Barbara Nelson.

Louise Fahrner leaves her Garbo ways to our next school actress.

Margaret Wilson leaves her ability in drawing to Bob Adams.

Stanley Keast leaves his "Lemon-squeezer" to the school orchestra.

Ulrikka Jensen wills her eyes to just any girl that can use them.

Clara Langnau wills her journalistic ability to next year's paper.

Evelyn Kenyon leaves her way of making friends to some of you distant Juniors.

Bill Pearlman wills his experiments to Einstein.

Jean Thixton leaves her swimming skill to the team.

Woody Truba leaves his masculine silence to Jack McNally.

Opal Isaacs wills her carefree ways to Anna Turkowski.

Paul Tucker wills his southern accent to someone who wants a way with "wimmin."

Last, but not least, Kay Bruce leaves the charge of the candy stand to someone else for a change.

And we hereby set our seal (sad as it may be) upon the above document, to be considered of no account. This day of the year one thousand, nine hundred and thirty-seven by the class of June 1937.

Attorney: Lillian Irion.
Witnesses: Margaretha Schalm,
B. A. McCloy.

SENIOR CLASS PROPHECY

It was my first assignment. I was to cover a banquet given at the new Hazel Park Hotel. "It must be a big party," I thought, as I signaled a taxi. Notebook in hand I tried to think of some of the things my journalism teacher, Miss Martin, had taught me. Driving to the hotel I noticed that the driver looked very familiar. I discovered him to be none other than Art Hulbert, the self-appointed lady killer of Hazel Park High School, who has finally married Frances Oldenburg leaving Marie Tronge with a broken heart. By further questioning I found that the banquet was to be in honor of Bill Pearlman, because of his recent scientific discoveries; he carries the distinguished handle of Professor William Pearlman. Bill always was one to haunt the laboratory rooms.

Arriving at the hotel many familiar faces greeted me. The Class of "37" had certainly shown up to honor their old friend and classmate. Questioning the guests I took these interesting notes on what had happened since our last meeting ten years before, on June 25, 1937.

Carl Kligman and Louise Fahrner have made a big name for themselves on Broadway. Carl and Louise have gone far since the days of "Enter Mr. Patricia," "It Never Rains," and "Midsummer Night's Dream."

Evelyn Kenyon and Doris Kellogg confessed that they had married their senior year steadies, Bill Langnau and Jimmie Weir.

Jean Thixton, who is now an Olympic swimmer, was there—still making eyes in the direction of Paul Tucker, who was escorted by four of his high school heartbreaks in the persons of Marie Rubelmann, Isabelle Lumsden, Evelyn Bechtel, and Betty Jones.

Zigmund Niparko is in the employ of the United States Government. Zigmund, I remember, always was interested in government, spending five minutes preparing his next day's lesson.

Kathleen (Bame) Young came with her husband. They are an old married couple by now, as they were married three months before graduation.

Ethel Marr, Helen Cook, and Viola Vennard are girl coaches at neighboring schools.

Bill (if you want to know something—ask Me!) Husband is manager of the R. K. O. Uptown theater. Bill used to be an usher, if you remember.

Charles Colgrove, Pat Larch, and Harold Corbin are professional baseball players and Elmer Wilson is their bat boy.

Allan Ashley and Bob Burger have a funeral parlor on John R. and, much to our amazement, Lily Armstrong is their attendant.

Jimmy Cudney, bigger than ever, has become a notorious wrestler.

Ernie Parsonson was present in full regalia of United States Military Academy (West Point).

Paul Kampe is a man's clothes model in one of the large Detroit stores.

A very, very modern beauty parlor had been opened by Lillian Irion and her operators are Vera Kampe, Marjorie Breen, and Mildred Frazier.

George Ellison and Johnny Kaumeyer are reporters on a newspaper syndicate.

Pauline May, Marcia Bryan, and Mary Smith, a radio trio, are making many vaudeville appearance.

Charles Balis divides his time between aeroplanes and politics and oh yes, George Westfall is still sowing his wild oats and hoping for a crop failure.

Art Mattson teaches ski-jumping and yodels as a sideline.

George Bugor is studying law and has aspirations of becoming one of the nine old men on the Supreme Court Bench.

Rubert Chynoweth is a competitor of the great Einstein and spends his evenings trying to figure out the fourth dimension on the table cloth.

Surprise!! Frieda Boyce has married Raymond Robbins. Remember the love scenes they enacted in the halls?

Laura Rohelier has gone to Hollywood as understudy to Eleanor Powell.

At one end of the table the inseparable trio, Kenny Richardson, Dick Martz, and Otis Matney, were still slaying the ladies, Dick doing the shooting with his Irish personality.

We looked up in surprise at the hush that fell over the crowd as that delightful couple, Gisela Pusch and Russ Burger, entered late, as usual.

During an intimate conversation with Stanley (Stooge) Keast and Howard Dinger I found that they are still Jack-of-all-Trades but past masters at tap dancing only.

Johnnie Stephenson finally admitted he is manager of a girl's school but he is still a great kidder for we noticed him handing that glamorous stage and screen star, Miss Virginia McMurray, his old line.

Vivian Swan has settled down with the man of her dreams, a 99-year-old millionaire.

Marty Henry broke the Olympic track record for the mile. Marty's track career began when he bought the Ford that necessitated his walking home wherever he took it.

Richard Fogarty has become one of the leading engineers of the day.

Who would have believed that a quiet fellow like Vince Greeson should become one of the best salesmen in America! It seems he is with a peanut concern.

Guy Cain has realized his ambition—a fast car and a beautiful woman in the person of Lillian Wenkus.

Luther Stewart is one of the best ends in "Pro" football.

Wilma Hill has taken Miss Thomas's place in the high school, teaching typing and shorthand.

Estelle Roe and Marjorie Pierce are dress models in Neva Henderlight's dress shop.

Louis Kahn is Dr. Louis D. Kahn, which proves that soda jerking at the corner drug store wasn't the height of his ambition.

Lorna Lane is a doctor's wife. It was her only ambition when she was in high school.

Ed Ringl says he has caught a glimpse of the great heights as yet unattained by man, but he expects to conquer them with an overwhelming force of thought.

The saying "Never the Twain shall part" reminds me of Betty Jane Walters and Bertha Lindholm. They never would consent to part so they married Siamese twins.

Margie Bland settled down to be a farmer's wife and to raise children and chickens.

Sam Gill is a lion tamer at a circus owned by Woodrow Truba. We see now that Sam was just practicing when he tried to tame all the girls in school. It seems Woodrow has many of the class in his show. Hermina Olmack is a horseback rider; Clarence Sova, the wild man from Borneo; and Walter Ogilvie, the man on the flying trapeze.

Kay Bruce is lady supervisor of the Metropolitan Aquarium.

In our own way we found that Margaret Wilson has become one of Hazel Park's four hundred.

Telegrams were read from the following who found it impossible to be there: Mary Wardlaw, Delphine Winniger, James Walters and Maybelle Young.

It was getting very late; the crowd was beginning to thin out. Realizing I had only ten minutes to make the last edition, I rushed to the office very happy as I knew that everyone had enjoyed seeing his pals of "37."

JOURNALISM CLASS

The purpose of the Journalism class is to learn the mechanics of journalism and newspaper composition, and to publish a school paper which strives to chronicle the interests and activities of the student body in a straightforward unbiased manner, to interpret the life of the school to the community, to encourage scholarship and clean sportsmanship, and to foster school spirit.

ACHIEVEMENTS

The class has published "The Hazel Parker" bi-weekly during the school year. In addition, each member of the class has obtained an interview with some celebrated personage, and in many cases attended lectures given by them. The list included Lowell Thomas, John Erskine, Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, Sonja Henie, David Irwin, Richard Haliburton, Mrs. Martin Johnson, Fred Waring, Elvira Laine, Madam Springer, Elizabeth Woodward, Guy Lombardo, "Ty" Tyson, H. C. L. Jackson, Jimmie Stevenson, and Sybil Jason.

The purpose of the Girl Reserves is to find and give the best. The slogan is to face life squarely.

The Girl Reserves of Hazel Park High have been trying to promote honesty, friendship, courtesy, and loyalty between the girls of our school and of other schools. Their activities for the past year are as follows:

PALMER PARK PICNIC
ALL-HIGH SCHOOL DANCE
DRESSING OF GOODFELLOW DOLLS
HI-Y-GIRL RESERVE PARTY
BAKE SALE
CONFERENCE AT LANSING
CAKE RAFFLE
GOOD FRIDAY SERVICE AT MICHIGAN THEATRE
ST. PATRICK'S DANCE
MOTHER AND DAUGHTER DINNER
ROLLER SKATING PARTY

Third Row: Tucker, Niparko, Bogues.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

ADVISER—Miss Schalm

The emblem of the society, symbolic of knowledge, is a lighted torch which beckons us down the paths that lead to the development of scholarship, leadership, service and character.

The Hazel Park chapter is composed of students selected each semester from 12A, 12B, and 11A classes, by a faculty council. Membership is based on scholarship, service, leadership and character.

The members of the present chapter have set the precedent of holding an annual meeting of old and new members to keep those who have graduated in close contact with the society. The chapter is active in putting forth a failure list which is of invaluable aid to the teachers in making those failing in any subjects strive to raise their scholastic standing.

First Row: Lockhart, Chaney, Grieves, Schiner, Stuckman, Bowron, Brian, Hill, Schlickenmeyer, Watson, King, Rabe.

Second Row: Matthews, Jones, Burger, Fyffe, Myers, McMurray, Lilly, Bechtel, Ruffer, Perryman, Mr. Brenner.

Third Row: E. Bowron, Mattson, Cudney, Ringl, Reich, Adams, Niparko, Bogues, Tansil, Kampe, Goulait.

CHEMISTRY CLUB

SPONSOR—Mr. Brenner

The purpose of the Chemistry Club, is to incite an interest in chemistry and to see how it is applied to every day living.

The club has visited the following interesting places this year:

(1) U. S. Rubber Company. Here we saw how rubber is heated and made into many useful articles. (2) The Parke Davis Company of Detroit. We were shown through the laboratories and through the departments where we saw how many of our medicines are made. (3) The Packard Automobile Company. The preparation of the paint and the assembling of the automobiles proved especially interesting. (4) The Ford Motor Company's Laboratories. We were shown how fabrics, rubber, and other materials used in the manufacturing of automobiles were tested. Also we visited the blast furnaces, where steel is heated so that it can be shaped for use in manufacturing.

First Row: Langnau, Pavkovich, Shivas, Hudolin, Danhauser, May, Barton, Lane.

Second Row: Pearlman, Chynoweth, Tansil, Laursen, Mrs. Branch, Hoyle, Doctor, Greeson, Alsbach.

LIBRARY STAFF

LIBRARIAN—Mrs. Branch

The Library Staff is composed of the Librarian and fifteen assistants. The work of the staff is to assist in any work connected with the library, such as signing books to students, mending books, keeping a record of the readers using the library, and getting new books ready for shelving.

The staff itself is to be so familiar with the library that it can supply books required to be read as a part of study, can locate books chosen by the teachers for supplementary reading, or can suggest books for enjoyment.

Our Library code is (1) to use the library for reference work, and general reading, (2) to issue books only under specified conditions, (3) to return all library books found and to preserve library property.

This code pertains to all libraries. We believe it the duty of every pupil using the room to cooperate with the librarian and her assistants in keeping it orderly and quiet.

THE HAZEL PARK HI-Y CLUB

ADVISER—Mr. Richards

The purpose of the Hi-Y Club is to create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community high standards of Christian character.

"The function of the Hi-Y Club is to bring together those boys who are interested in Christian standards for personal living and for school life and to mobilize their efforts in behalf of whatever is needed to put the spirit of Christian fellowship into every school group and into every school situation."

The Hazel Park Hi-Y Club has shown its worth to our school; it has hoped to establish a finer outlook on life, both for its members and for the students of this school. The modern youth has many problems; the Hi-Y Club has begun the work of solving these problems.

First Row: Page, Carr, Riley, Martini, Rimpas, Mr. McCloy, Greeson, Kligman, Skok, Clarkson, Svatora.

Second Row: Griswold, Willer, Griesmer, Stewart, Sheets, Ringl, Bell, Grieves, Muzechenko, Chamberlain.

HAZEL PARK AERO CLUB

ADVISER—Mr. McCloy

Early in the school year a group of boys interested in Model Airplane building organized the Hazel Park High School Aero Club.

Meetings were held each Wednesday from 4 to 5 o'clock. Interesting talks have been given by the older boys, together with blackboard illustrations, which were very helpful to the less experienced builders.

The Club sponsored a contest in the Lacey school gymnasium, at which time prizes for endurance flights and scale built planes were given. Laurie Wilson was the winner in the endurance contest, and George Carr in model building.

First Row: Fields, Danhauser, Pascoe, Raines, P. May, C. Langnau, Kenyon, Valom, B. Reich, Pusch, Rabe, Rader, Gibson, Robbins, Lockhart, Hale, Dankert.

SENIOR BOYS' AND GIRLS' GLEE CLUB

DIRECTOR—Miss Amstutz

ACCOMPANIST—Betty Jane Walters

The purpose of the glee club is to interest the members in singing, to acquaint them with the classics, and to develop confidence and poise before an audience.

PROJECTS

The Glee Club sponsored the high school Christmas concert, have had engagements at Hazel Park churches and schools, and have sung over the radio. A Gilbert and Sullivan light opera, "H. M. S. Pinafore," was presented on April 30 and May 1. The Glee Club sang selections in "Midsummer's Night's Dream." A spring concert of classical music finished a much successful year.

First Row: G. Pouncey, Mason, Ruff, McTear, V. Reich, Grosvenor, Warren, Drake, Pappin, Fairhurst, Wirbicki, Gillespie, Salee, Keyser, Dixon.

Second Row: White, Heaps, Tomsick, Sarkissian, Taylor, Carlson, McDonald, Durbin, Cook, Novick, Keuhn, Alexander, Christenson, Hall, Miss Thomas.

Third Row: Tingley, Sekora, Niparko, Wheat, Angeli, Brown, Embling, Kraft, Young, Weiland, Tronge, Pfankuch, Dankert, Herman, Becker, Grunow.

JUNIOR GIRLS' GLEE CLUB

DIRECTOR—Miss Eleanor Thomas

The Junior Girls' Glee Club is made up of a group of beginners. Any girl in high school may join. The club meets every Tuesday, Wednesday, and Friday. The purpose of this Glee Club is to inspire in the girls a liking for good music. The Glee Club has furnished music for the following occasions: (1) The Christmas Assembly, (2) The November meeting of the High School Parent-Teacher Association, (3) the High Masquers Frolic, and (4) the Hazel Park Baptist Church. The Club has forty-six members.

First Row: Barrone, Kellogg, Pascoe, Majorana, Kunze, Kuck, Sheets, Phillips, Svatora.
Second Row: Pfankuch, Winters, Jackson, Woll, Heatherington, Hutchins, L. Pfankuch, Cosgrove.
Third Row: Mr. Josh Roach, Director.

HAZEL PARK HIGH SCHOOL ORCHESTRA

DIRECTOR—Mr. Roach

The object of the Hazel Park High School Orchestra is to stimulate an interest in the study of music.

The orchestra of 1937 has made many appearances. It furnished music for a high school assembly on two occasions. It accompanied the Glee Clubs in presenting H. M. S. Pinafore. It played in the Spring Concert which is presented every year through the cooperation of the Glee Clubs and Orchestra. As the year closed, the Orchestra contributed music for the senior commencement exercises.

First Row: Langnau, Kenyon, Lane, B. Reich, Shivas, Keast, Gill, Layson, Niparko, Sigman, V. Reich, Kuck, G. Pouncey, J. Sigman, Freeman.

"DOUBLE DOOR"

Perhaps the high point of the dramatic season was the faculty play. Those august persons stepped from their routine duties in the class rooms to fill the rolls in "Double Door" by Elizabeth McFadden, and provide the audience with an evening of thrills and suspense. "Double Door," a very popular mystery-drama on Broadway in 1933-34, told of the battle for power that went on in an old New York family, culminating on the very verge of murder.

All those who witnessed this endeavor will look forward to future faculty plays.

Pouncey, Mold, Layson, Cudney, Kligman, G. Pouncey, Greeson, Day, Hartman, Fahrner, Tardiff, Irion.

"IT NEVER RAINS" by Aurania Rouverol

The play, a light three-act comedy, had its setting in sunny California. The plight of Jimmy Rogers, the seventeen-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Rogers, was brought out in a laugh-provoking manner when he fell in love with young Dorothy Donovan, who with her parents, was visiting the Rogers in California. To complicate matters, Noraleen Sears, a young villainess, attempted to break up their light romance by continually placing Jimmy in embarrassing predicaments. Dane Lawson, Mrs. Rogers' former boy friend, comes to see her and provide an interesting sub-plot in which Mr. Rogers finally regained the love of his wife.

"H. M. S. PINAFORE"

The Music Department presented as their annual operetta "H. M. S. Pinafore," a nautical comedy written by Gilbert and Sullivan.

Ralph Rackstraw, a common sailor, and Josephine, his captain's daughter, are deeply in love but cannot be married because of the great difference in their rank. Captain Corcoran had previously promised his daughter's hand in marriage to Sir Joseph Porter, the admiral. Ralph and Josephine plan to elope, but their scheme is upset by the arch-villain Dick Deadeye who warns the captain of their intent. To everyone's surprise Buttercup, a former nurse-maid, reveals that she had interchanged Ralph and the Captain in their babyhood when they were placed in her charge. That lowered Josephine's rank and made possible her marriage to Ralph after Sir Joseph refused her hand. The operetta ends to the satisfaction of all concerned as Ralph weds Josephine, the captain marries Buttercup, and Sir Joseph Porter joins hands with his cousin Hebe in matrimony.

"Enter Mr. Particia."

The Hazel Park Hi-Masquers opened the year's dramatic season with a farce comedy by Wilbur Brown, "Enter Mr. Patricia." The play told of the merry mix-up resulting when a very bashful boy assumed the roll of beauty expert after his friend had inherited a beauty parlor in a small town. The whole effect was gay and exciting.

The play was well presented by an all school cast and was heartily received by two large audiences.

"A Midsummer Night's Dream"

The Hi-Masquers chose for the school term's last dramatic production William Shakespeare's famous play, "A Midsummer Night's Dream."

The play enacts the tangled romances of four Athenians. Both Lysander and Demetrius vie for the hand of fair Hermia; after several complications Demetrius goes back to his first-love, Helena. The comedy of the play is vested in a group of tradesmen who attempt to enact a melodramatic play in honor of their Duke's marriage to Hippolyta, queen of the Amazons.

GIRLS' VARSITY BASKETBALL

The Girls' Varsity Basketball team, under the coaching of Harriet E. Larson, completed its third undefeated year in the court game. The team played in no regular league this year. They won 10 of their 11 games and tied the remaining one.

Claire Hildebrand, captain for next year, was high scorer with 100 points; Irene Kinnard ranked second with 82 points.

Marjorie Bland, this year's captain, did not play the full season because of illness.

Recognition of guards is seldom given, but guards play a very important part in the game. Emma Hudolin and Ruth Mary Shivas have shown exceptional ability. Veteran guards who will graduate this year are Marjorie Bland, Mary Smith, Vivian Swan, and Viola Vennard.

Schedule—1936-1937

Team	H. P. C. S.	OPP.

Total Points	364	200

H. P. 22 — Melvindale 17

The team started the season by defeating Melvindale in a fast and exciting game. The team took an early lead which was not cut down until the second half. Helen Cook paced the Parker forwards with 8 points.

H. P. 25 — Alumnae 22

This game was easily one of the most exciting games of the year. Claire Hildebrand led in points by scoring six baskets.

H. P. 35 — Melvindale 24

In the return game with Melvindale the Parkers again overcame their opponents.

H. P. 45 — H. P. Independents 40

This team, composed chiefly of Alumnae, challenged the Varsity to another game, hoping to avenge the earlier defeat, but again the Parkers proved themselves the better by coming from behind after trailing the first half to down the Independents by a score of 45-40.

H. P. 41 — Van Dyke 27

The Parkers led from the first. Irene Kinnard led the scoring by chalking up 15 points.

H. P. 52 — Berkley 8

Hazel Park girls continued undefeated by winning easily over Berkley. This game was played by the regular team.

H. P. 31 — Berkley 5

This game was played by the reserve team. Helen Van Buskirk placed 5 field goals and Dorothy Fahrner added 8 points.

H. P. 32 — Van Dyke 32

This was truly the hardest game of the season. At the first half the Parkers led by a score of 21 to 10. The second half of the game became very tense while Van Dyke came from behind to tie the score.

H. P. 41 — Berkley 6

This was an easy game for the Parker's regular team. Barbara Russell, a newcomer this year, played very well.

H. P. 19 — Berkley 6

This game was also a set-up for the reserves. The score at the half was 8-0. In the second half the Berkley team made 6 points, but they could not keep up the fast pace set by the Parkers.

H. P. 21 — Faculty 12

This was the last game of the season and was played by the reserves. Miss Thomas led the teachers with 8 points; Miss Frances followed with 3 points.

The following players won varsity letters: Helen Cook, Claire Hildebrand, Emma Hudolin, Irene Kinnaird, Barbara Russell, Ruth Mary Shivas, Mary Smith, Vivian Swan, Viola Vennard.

Reserve players were Marjorie Bland, Martha Emmons, Dorothy Fahrner, Margaret Jones, Genevieve Lockhart, Ethel Marr, Marjorie May, Lillian Nicholls, Marion Opie, Beatrice Reich, Kathleen Smith, Helen Van Buskirk, Ruth Veale, Ethel Young.

First Row: Thixton, Smith, King, Kellogg, Campbell.

Second Row: Coach Martin, Proux, Mason, Shivas, Bland, Ponton, Kinnaird.

GIRLS' SWIMMING SQUAD

INSTRUCTOR: Miss Mafalda Martin

During the year an unusually large group of girls showed special aquatic ability. From this group a swimming squad was chosen, composed of those who were able to pass a series of rigid tests in swimming and diving.

Junior Red Cross Life Saving Emblem

Holders of Junior Red Cross Life Saving Emblems are Mary Serdar, Ruth Mary Shivas, and Geraldine Ponton.

Swimmers' Buttons

The following girls have passed qualifications which entitle them to wear the Swimmer's Red Cross Life Saving Button: Genevieve Bland, Mae Campbell, Anita Christenson, Doris Kellogg, Ada King, Irene Kinnaird, Esther Krutzina, Thelma Mason, Doris Markham, Dorothy McCready, Emma Novick, Betty Proux, Virginia Proux, Mabel Ruff, Ruth Mary Shivas, Mary Smith, Shirley Smith, Liselotte Staudenmaier, Margaret Takacs, Jean Thixton, Etoile Tesch, Evelyn Yeip, Gladys Yeip, Ethel Young, Mabel Young, Rita Young, Nora Zdan.

Beginner's Test

The following girls have passed the beginner's test of jumping into water over their own depth and swimming 25 feet, making a complete turn, and swimming back 25 feet: Elizabeth Boksan, Marjorie Breen, Marie Carter, Cornelia Coanta, Lorraine Courser, Vivian Drake, Grace Downey, Shirley Durbin, Dorothy Fuller, Magdalene Hardwick, Christine Hostetler, Ena Houser, Dolores Hyde, June Jackson, Ruth Keyser, Genevieve Kenny, Beverley Kniffen, Everill La Baumbard, Hazel Laducer, Betty Lozen, Marjorie May, Dorothy McCready, Betty Montanbault, Anna Nichiporuk, Joyce Otterson, Charlotte Perrault, Evelyn Phillips, Virginia Picard, Yvonne Rademaker, Muriel Rogers, Marion Salee, Dorothy Schonmier, Margaret Taylor, Elinor Thompson, Ruth Tingley, Margaret Ware, Maxine Watson, and Norma Young.

First Row: Cloutier, Lagg, Jewell, Managers.

Second Row: Elliott, Hart, W. Marsh, World, Stewart, Husband, Ringl, O'Gilvie, Ashley.

Third Row: Coach Wilson, Sandey, Schmidt, Sunyog, Kouba, Finley, Scott, Coach Grba.

FOOTBALL SQUAD

THE '36 GRIDIRON SEASON

The season was officially opened on a bright autumn afternoon on Ferndale's turf.

The Hazel Park boys, several of whom were playing their first scheduled varsity game, fought hard that day but to no avail. The Hazel Park boys met with defeat, but with determination in their minds, they set out to play the rest of the season harder.

Through the season Hazel Park met with keen competition. Lincoln of Van Dyke was beaten in a very exciting struggle, and Cranbrook, with a fine team, was held to a tie. The rest perhaps were defeats, using the score as a measuring rule, but considering the fine sportsmanship shown, the enjoyment found, and the experience gained, the season was a moral success.

The Hazel Park High School Varsity Basketball Squad got away to a bad start by dropping the opening game to the Alumni.

The games of the season, most of them defeats in the score-books, were victories from the moral standpoint. Sportsmanship in the face of victories and defeats alike was at its highest. No game was lost until the final whistle blew. Each man gave his level best and at times outdid himself to score an extra point which meant more honor for the school. Looking at the season from this viewpoint, it was a success.

'37 BASEBALL

The season was opened with Redford on our new field. The Parkers, resplendent in their natty maroon and gray uniforms, suceeded in soundly trouncing Redford with a score of 7-0. The home nine took the field against Lincoln of Ferndale the following week and was nosed out 5-3. After journeying to Redford, the squad lost a fiercely contested battle 1-0. After a short rest, the Parkers dropped the next game to St. Mary's of Orchard Lake 5-4. The next scheduled game took the squad to Roseville where they easily defeated Roseville 10-3.

The outstanding players of the season were Charles Colgrove, pitcher; Bill (Windy) Husband behind the plate; George Schmidt and Pat Hart in the infield; and Bob Hoyle and Leo Knapp in the outfield.

A junior high baseball schedule has been carried out in conjunction with the varsity schedule.

THE HAZEL PARK GIRLS' LETTER CLUB

OFFICERS

GERALDINE SUSEWITT	President
CLAIRE HILDEBRAND	Vice President
EMMA HUDOLIN	Secretary-Treasurer

Purpose:

To further interest in Girls' Athletics, both in varsity and inter-class sports.

Members:

Marjorie Bland, Vera Clark, Helen Cook, Roberta Dickie, Martha Emmons, Thelma Hendry, Claire Hildebrand, Emma Hudolin, Doris Kellogg, Irene Kinnaird, Thelma Mason, Marjorie May, Anula Psara, Barbara Russell, Ruth Shivas, Mary Smith, Geraldine Susewitt, Vivian Swan, Jean Thixton, Betty Valom, Ruth Veale, Viola Vennard.

Activities:

Athletic Tournaments, Giving Awards, Sponsor Point System.

The point system is a means by which points are given for various athletics. When a total of 300 points is earned, an award is given. After winning these awards for four years, a varsity all-sports-letter is given.

TAWANKA CAMP FIRE

GUARDIANS — Mrs. Stuckman, Miss Freer

Tawanka is an Indian name meaning "Willing to undertake or willing to try." This group often undertakes new projects. They seek to follow the Camp Fire Law which is, Seek Beauty, Give Service, Pursue Knowledge, Be Trustworthy, Hold on to Health, Glorify Work, Be Happy and through this law the group strives to use its leisure time to good advantage. It tries to have good wholesome fun and to discover new fields to use in hobby work. It strives to keep ever in mind the meaning of the Camp Fire Watch word WOHELO which is derived from the three words Work, Health and Love.

Through the guidance and leadership of its guardians, and the cooperation of its members, the Tawanka group has at least partially accomplished some of the purposes set forth. Its members have learned to work harmoniously together to accomplish a set desire. It has this past year given service to its community in the form of aid to the Hazel Park Public Library, clothing to the Red Cross for Flood Relief, dressing dolls for the Goodfellows, and a story hour for younger children.

"The College For Men"

Last year over 2,000 MEN attended college at the Detroit Institute of Technology. Preparations are being made for increased enrollment this fall with a new College of Law building, remodeled shops and laboratories, and increased class room space.

Detroit Tech has always been proud of its evening school, which offers to the man employed during the day full opportunities to secure a college education. We urge, however, all men who can do so to start college in the day session, as this permits more rapid progress.

Tech has five collegiate departments—Liberal Arts, Commerce, Engineering, Pharmacy, and Law. You are invited to write, phone, or call for a catalogue. Please specify the course in which you are interested.

Train For Business

The marked recovery in business is bringing new opportunities for young men and women who have supplemented their high school education with thorough specialized training.

In a professional school of business training, such as ours, high school graduates can qualify for satisfactory employment by taking a Secretarial, Accounting, Shorthand, Stenotype, or Business Administration Course.

By maintaining service out of the ordinary—up-to-date courses of study; new, modern equipment, well qualified, experienced instructors; and an active employment department—The Business Institute is today one of the outstanding business schools of America.

A personal call is suggested as this is always the most satisfactory method of investigation.

The Detour—The worst distance between two points.

J. McNally: "Why don't you look where you're walking? You pedestrians walk around just as if you owned the streets."

C. Lilly: "Yes, and some of you motorists ride around just as if you owned your autos."

* * * * *

Every year is Leap Year for pedestrians.

* * * * *

ONE ON HIM

Z. Niparko: "My stock in trade is brains."

C. Kligman: "You've got a funny looking sample case."

* * * * *

GENTLE REPLY

M. Young: "Who the deuce do you think you are?"

M. Eade: "Just a little dandruff trying to get ahead."

* * * * *

DIDN'T SUSPECT

"Can your girl keep a secret."

"Can she? We were as good as married seven weeks before I knew it."

* * * * *

RAPID RIGHTEOUSNESS

R. Burger: "I feel like a better man every time I kiss you."

G. Pusch: "Well, you needn't try to get to heaven in one night."

* * * * *

ACCIDENTAL DISCOVERY

He: "The showers at our house haven't been working for three months."

She: "When did you find that out?"

He: "This morning."

HUMANITARIAN

"Well, Steve," said the foreman, "I'm sorry to see you leave. Aren't the wages satisfactory?"

"The wages are all right," replied Steve, "but I keep having a guilty feeling all the time."

"About what?"

"I'm all the time thinkin' I'm keeping a horse out of a job."

* * * * *

WHAT A CRUEL WORLD

Zig Niparko: "So you're going to use me in your next play. At last you've discovered what I am."

Mr. Roach: "Yes; hurry up and get into the hind legs of that horse over here."

* * * * *

DISCONTENTED COWS

Housewife: "Don't bring me any more of that horrid milk. It's positively blue."

Milkman: "It ain't our fault, lady. It's these long dull evenings as makes the cows depressed.

* * * * *

ON THE H'OWL 'OUS!

Englishman: "What's that bloomin' noise out side this time o' night?"

American: "Why, that's an owl."

Englishman: "Of course it is, but 'oos 'owling?"

* * * * *

Little Alice, 4, was asked by a neighbor: "Does your mother spank you when you run away?"

Alice pondered: "No," she said. "She spanks me when I come back."

* * * * *

Thirty days hath September, April, June, and my uncle for speeding.

* * * * *

Bob Newberry (sarcastically): "You'd be at home in London."

Herb: "How come?"

Bob: "Well, you've been in a fog ever since I knew you."

FOLLOWED DIRECTIONS

Judge: "Did you steal that rug?"

Tramp: "No, a lady give it to me and told me to beat it."

* * * * *

"What's a Grecian urn?"

"Not very much, sir."

LIKE PAPA FOR INSTANCE

"Mama," said little Johnny, "don't men ever go to Heaven?"

'Why, of course, dear. What makes you ask?"

"Because I never see any pictures of angels with whiskers."

"Well," said mother thoughtfully, "some men go to Heaven, but they get there by a close shave."

PAT PENDING

A middle-aged woman came into a plumbing shop to get a repair part for a plumbing fixture. She didn't have the defective part with her, so the plumber asked her what firm had made the equipment.

She replied: "I'm not sure. The only name I could find on it was 'Pat Pending'."

"You know, Tom, my girl is like an Easter egg."

"Yea, how is that?"

"Oh, she's hard boiled and painted."

* * * * *

Miss Schalm (just before Xmas): "What is a principal clause?"

Jack Bogues: "Santa Claus."

* * * * *

Miss Weller: "Define the word puncture."

H. Dinger: "A puncture is a little hole in a tire usually found a great distance from a garage."
